Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

All may be seated.

First Lesson

Habakkuk 1:1-4, 2:1-4

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

O Lord, how long shall I cry for help,
and you will not listen?

Or cry to you "Violence!"
and you will not save?

Why do you make me see wrong-doing
and look at trouble?

Destruction and violence are before me;
strife and contention arise.

So the law becomes slack
and justice never prevails.

The wicked surround the righteous-- therefore judgment comes forth perverted.

I will stand at my watchpost,
and station myself on the rampart;

I will keep watch to see what he will say to me,
and what he will answer concerning my complaint.

Then the Lord answered me and said:

Write the vision;
make it plain on tablets,
so that a runner may read it.

For there is still a vision for the appointed time;
it speaks of the end, and does not lie.

If it seems to tarry, wait for it;
it will surely come, it will not delay.

Look at the proud!
Their spirit is not right in them,
but the righteous live by their faith.

After the reading, the reader says

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 37:1-7   sung by choir

The Epistle

2 Timothy 1:1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God-- whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did-- when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

After the reading, the reader says

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

The Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

People

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant.

From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us.

Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

All sing

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God.

To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love.

Then the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you. On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those

who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Little children, get on board. There's room for many more.
Well, I wouldn't take nothing for my journey now. I'm bound for Canaan's land.*

in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Music Note

Today's prelude and anthems are arrangements by the accomplished classical pianist and improviser, Undine Smith Moore (1904-1989). The granddaughter of slaves, she persisted through many obstacles of life in 20th-century United States in her pursuit of a vocation as a musician. Known as the "Dean of Black Women Composers," Undine studied at Fisk and Columbia Universities, and taught at Virginia State University and Carleton College. She delivered the keynote address at the first National Congress on Women in Music at New York University in March 1981. While she composed over 100 works, including spiritual arrangements, art songs, chamber music and major works for choir and orchestra, only 26 were published during her lifetime. Three of her anthems, including today's offertory anthem, will be highlighted at the Interfaith Choral Concert at 5pm on Sunday, October 16.

Congratulations to our Confirmands and their families!

Seven people from St. Paul's were confirmed at Grace Cathedral last Sunday, September 25th at 6pm. The Confirmands were joined by Confirmands from 2 other churches within our Diocese, their families and some others from St. Paul's. Each Confirmand enjoyed a private conversation about receiving and letting go by the Rt. Rev. Marc Andrus prior to the celebration, and we all stuck around to get a group photo with the Bishop and two Deacons after the service.

At both the 10:00am and 12:30pm worship services the following Confirmands will be recognized and given gifts from the community to celebrate this milestone moment:

Paige Austin, Tim Elliott, Apisai Fifita, Paula Fifita, Olivia Long, Caroline Readey, & Will VanderLugt

Our gifts include: a journal to encourage a deeper awareness of God's presence in their daily lives, a prayer book to support their continued growth, a framed picture of the Bishop laying his hands on them to serve as a reminder of where they once found themselves along their faith journey, and a loaf of bread to symbolize the community of St. Paul's and how we engage in the communal practice of recognizing God amongst us in the breaking of the bread.

Let us continue to pray over them: Strengthen, O Lord, your servants, with your Holy Spirit; empower them for your service; and sustain them all the days of their lives. Amen.

Please note: the next Confirmation hosted at the Cathedral is TBA. In the meantime, if you and/or your children want to participate and be kept in the loop of when the next sessions of preparation will be, simply email Jocelyn at jsideco@stpaulsburlingame.org.

Circle of St. Paul's Gives Thanks !

On Saturday, September 25th The Circle of St. Paul's hosted a first time Donation Drive-Thru for parishioners and Circle members.

We appreciated donors pre-sorting their boxed and bagged items of clothing, toys, kitchenware, housewares , books etc. ahead of the event and the many volunteers on hand to handle the steady flow of cars, take donations and provide receipts. These and other donations will be on sale at our October 8th ( Rummage " Whale of a Sale") located in the Occidental parking lot and the Parish hall from 9:30 am -3:00 PM.

Three Cheers to our donors and volunteers for a successful day !
